This isn't the only computer center on the West Side that's important to us.

There's another brand new computer center just blocks away at the Mabel Manning Library. It was made possible by one of our community service grants.

This isn't the only way the Chicago Bulls and the NBA are encouraging Chicago area students to "Stay In School."

Other community service activities include our Adopt-A-School Program, Perfect Attendance Rewards, College Scholarship Awards and ongoing support of local educational programs through our umbrella non-profit organization, CharitaBulls.

It's all part of our firm belief in the power of higher education. Because lighting up the hearts and minds of our kids is just as important as lighting up the United Center scoreboard.

1994-95 SEASON SUMMARY

NOVEMBER (7-6)

Among the biggest news was the opening of the United Center, which the Bulls successfully christened with an 89-83 win over the Charlotte Hornets on November 4. Other November highlights included road wins at San Antonio (94-92 on Nov. 16, with Will Perdue's dunk in the final second clinching the victory) and Dallas (111-85 on Nov. 19, behind Scottie Pippen's 36 points and 14 rebounds, with the win giving Coach Jackson his 300th career coaching victory), and a month-ending 118-105 home win over Phoenix on Nov. 30, with Pippen hitting for 35 points. Pippen led the club in scoring (23.7 ppg), rebounding (7.9 rpg) and assists (5.5 apg).

DECEMBER (8-7)

The Bulls began the month with a win-one, lose-one pattern for the first six games, until defeating the Atlanta Hawks 85-80 and winning two consecutive games. The Bulls then found themselves losing three straight games, including one games, including the game which Scottie Pippen missed (due to stomach flu) and the night the Bulls established a franchise-low 63 points in a 63-77 loss to the Cavs. The Bulls then came back to win two games with the 107-104 Christmas overtime victory against the New York Knicks at the United Center. Pippen tied his season-high 36 points in tyhat contest. The Bulls biggest win margin of the season (45) came on their last game of 1994. The Bulls defeated the Miami Heat 133-88 December 30, at the United Center.

JANUARY (7-8)

The biggest win of the month came on Jan. 10 in the Bulls 109-77 victory over eastern conference leader Orlando at the United Center. In that game Scottie Pippen recorded his 14th career triple-double (26 points, 10 rebounds, 11 assists). The Bulls managed to win back-to-back 30 plus point wins against Orlando and Philadelphia. Two other significant wins during the month came against NBA Champion Houston in Chicago Jan. 22 and versus the Lakers at Los Angeles Jan. 31. Armstrong led the Bulls in their win over the Rockets with 20 points while Pippen had a team-high 34 points and 13 rebounds in the Laker victory. For the month Pippen led the Buils in scoring with a 19.4 average. Toni Kukoc averaged 17.6 points per game during January.

FEBRUARY (5-8)

The road proved to be harsh place for the Bulls in February, as the team played 10 of its 13 games away from the United Center during the month. Of those 10 road contests, Chicago came out on the short end of the score eight times. The Bulls, however, did take care of matters on their home court by winning all three games during the month at the United Center. In the club's home victory over Detroit Feb. 17, Toni Kukoc contributed a career-high 33 points to go with 11 rebounds. The toughest road setback came at Orlando against the Magic Feb. 26. Chicago lost that contest by a 105-103 score. For the month, Pippen once again led the team in scoring with a 23.6 average. Toni Kukoc finished runner-up in the scoring race averaging 16.7 points per game in February.

MARCH (11-4)

The month was highlighted by the return of Michael Jordan. Jordan's first game back came at Indiana March 19. Jordan scored 19 points in his return although the Bulls lost to the Pacers 103-95 in overtime. March proved to be the club's best month as the Bulls won 11 of 15 games. Two standout performances came against Atlanta and New York -- both on the road. Against the Hawks, Jordan silenced the Omni crowd with his game-winning buzzer shot in the Bulls 99-98 win Mar. 25. Three days later Jordan exploded for a Garden and NBA season-high to date, 55 points at New York Mar. 28, in the Bulls 113-111.

APRIL (9-3)

The Bulls wrapped up the 1994-955 regular season with their best overall monthly record at 9-2. Continuing their winning ways, the Bulls won the first three games in April to take them to a six game winning streak. Cleveland eventually snapped the Bulls win streak at six in Cleveland April 9. The Cavs narrowly escaped with a 79-78 victory as Jordan missed a three-pointer over Bobby Phills as time expired. Following that loss, the Bulls won thier next six outings. The Bulls were led during the month by Scottie Pippen who averaged 17.2 points per game. The Bulls finished the season with a 47-35 record and third in the Central Division.

NBA COMMUNITY RELATIONS

The NBA, its teams and players share a commitment to supporting programs dedicated to improving the quality for all people.

For years, the NBA has created and implemented programs league-wide to address important social issues, with special emphasis on helping young people. This year's youth-based education programs will include: the NBA Stay in School program, created to encourage students to graduate from high school through school visits by NBA players and coaches; and conflict resolution workshops designed to train teachers and educate students in methods to resolve conflict without resorting to violence. Public service announcements and educational materials will also focus on anti-violence/conflict resolution message.

The NBA continues its support of CARE, the National Committee to Prevent Child Abuse and Special Olympics through television and radio public service announcements and other awareness-building efforts. The NBA also creates PSAs in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and Black History Month each year.

In addition, the NBA's 29 teams are making a difference, across the United States and Canada, through active involvement in a multitude of outreach efforts pertinent to the needs of their respective communities.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

INTRODUCTION

The Chicago Bulls take great pride in playing an active part in our community. We receive exceptional support from our fans and the city of Chicago, and the organization recognizes its responsibility to give back to the community. Our commitment to Chicago is to be actively involved in programs that improve the quality of life in the metropolitan area, and nowhere is that dedication more apparent than in the team's community relations' efforts. Our leadership role combines financial support, in-kind services, numerous community programs, and the personal involvement of our players, coaches, front office staff and entire organization. The Chicago Bulls are more than just a business - we are a partner, a neighbor and a teammate in the community.

SCHOOL PROGRAMS

STAY IN SCHOOL

Recognizing that today's young adults are tomorrow's leaders, education is a primary focus of both the Bulls and the National Basketball Association (NBA). The NBA's nationally acclaimed Stay in School program was created in 1989 to address the critical issue of high school dropouts. A joint effort of the NBA and the National Basketball Players Association, the Stay in School program includes several national and local elements designed to deliver the Stay in School message to students, particularly in middle school. The Bulls have an active Stay in School program on a local level that encourages students in the Chicagoland area to achieve perfect attendance and hopefully helps reduce the dropout rate. Through this program, students are able to earn certificates of achievement, tickets to Bulls' games, school visits from players and the chance to attend the Bulls' Annual Stay in School Jam that takes place each January.

SCORE WITH SCHOOL

Score with School, which began in 1994, is a motivational program for Chicago Public School students operated in conjunction with the Chicago White Sox and Northwestern University's Kellogg Graduate School. The program draws upon a child's interest in sports to encourage better study habits and improve communication skills such as reading and essay writing. Teachers are provided with game tickets, merchandise, and field trips to the United Center and Comiskey Park to reward students for academic achievement.

SCHOLARSHIPS

While the focus of the Stay in School program is on middle and high school students, the Bulls recognize the value of a college education and urge students to pursue college degrees. Each season the Bulls and CharitaBulls offer three $2,000 scholarships to high school seniors who plan to attend college. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic achievement, extra-curricular activities and the contents of an essay. Furthermore, the United Center offers $20,000 in scholarships to Malcolm X College students each year.

ADOPT-A-SCHOOL

Positive reinforcement, recognition and the use of role models are important tools for motivating students of any age. With this in mind, the Bulls annually adopt a Chicago Public School to help students better their education and provide inspiration. Incentives in the form of tickets, autographed memorabilia, arena tours and Bulls' souvenirs are donated to kids who achieve good attendance records, grade improvements and positive attitudes.

BELIEVE IT/ACHIEVE IT!

Learning to read a newspaper and follow current events is an important part of every child's education. The Bulls and the Chicago Tribune offer "Believe It/Achieve It" to help students develop goal-setting skills and self-esteem by using their excitement for the Bulls along with information from the Tribune. The program is open to fourth through eighth grade students.

ART CONTEST

In an effort to encourage creativity and interest in the arts, the Bulls host an art contest that allows kids to express their artistic talents. Held each spring, the contest invites students to draw or paint any scene depicting Bulls' basketball using either the Bulls' logo or the words "Chicago Bulls." Artwork from the winning entries appears in the Bulls' magazine, game program and yearbook. The contest is open to students in grades one through six in Lake, Cook and DuPage counties.

In addition to the school programs mentioned, the Bulls offer complimentary Stay in School paraphernalia including stickers, pins, bookmarks and pens, as well as calendars, posters and other items to schools throughout the school year.

CHARITABULLS

Since 1987, the Bulls' non-profit organization, CharitaBulls, has reached out to thousands of Chicagoans, making a difference in their lives. CharitaBulls was created as a vehicle through which the Bulls could say "thanks," and give something back to the Chicagoland community by raising funds for a variety of worthy causes. Because CharitaBulls pays no salaries, no administrative fees and no overhead, all funds go directly to the charity's programs and projects. The majority of the funds raised are donated to the following organizations:

CHICAGO PARK DISTRICT PROGRAMS

In 1995, CharitaBulls concluded a very successful five-year program with the Chicago Park District - the CharitaBulls Basketball Court Renovation Program. Through this program, CharitaBulls donated $1,000,000 over five years to repair and refurbish damaged city basketball courts. Over 140 courts, indoor and outdoor, have been renovated thanks to CharitaBulls' donation, and kids all across the city are able to play on courts that once were in disrepair.

The Bulls continued their relationship with the Chicago Park District and, in January 1995, donated $375,000 to form the Chicago Bulls/Chicago Park District Midnight Basketball League. CharitaBulls has pledged $75,000 each year for the next five years to support late night programming at the parks. Currently the program is available at 11 sites throughout Chicago parks and has attracted over 800 players from 17 to 26 years old. It is CharitaBulls' hope that this undertaking will provide young people with options other than the streets and gangs.

ILLINOIS SPECIAL OLYMPICS STATE BASKETBALL TOURNAMENTS

The Chicago Bulls and Illinois Special Olympics expanded their long-term relationship in 1991 as CharitaBulls became a co-sponsor of the Illinois Special Olympics District and State Basketball Tournaments. CharitaBulls donates $25,000 each year to help fund the annual eight district and two state tournaments and will continue to do so at least through 1997. Over 2,800 athletes from Illinois compete in these events. We believe that CharitaBulls' annual contribution helps enrich the lives of these special athletes.

CHICAGO PUBLIC LIBRARY SYSTEM

CharitaBulls seeks to provide educational opportunities for Chicago's youth and has joined with the Chicago Public Library System to support the Mabel Manning Branch Library, located just two blocks from the United Center. In 1994, CharitaBulls adopted the newly-built library and contributed $50,000 to furnish its "Computer Court," a computer center that features IBM and Macintosh personal computers, printers and software for use by the library patrons.

JAMES JORDAN BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB

CharitaBulls is committed to creating positive educational and recreational opportunities for children. Standing true to this principle, CharitaBulls donated $4 million in 1994, to build a 40,000 square-foot, two-story, youth and family development center named in the memory of James Jordan, father of Bulls' guard, Michael Jordan. The James Jordan Boys & Girls Club, expected to open in the summer of 1996, will contain a computer lab, a gym, dance and game room areas, and classroom facilities. The club will be built just two blocks from the United Center on Chicago's Near West Side, and will be a unit of the highly successful Boys & Girls Clubs of Chicago.

OTHER RECIPIENTS

Other recent recipients of funds raised through CharitaBulls include: Inner City Foundation, Helping Hand Rehabilitation Center, Easter Seal Society, Providence-St. Mel School, March of Dimes, Chicago Youth Success Foundation, Robert H. Lurie Cancer Center at Northwestern University, Chicago Cares, Little City, Chicago Abused Women Coalition, West Side Future, Women's Treatment Center, The Children's Place, Maryville Academy, American Brain Tumor Association, Partnership Against Racism, Black on Black Love, Corporate Community School of America, Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, Special Children's Charities and more.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS/PROGRAMS

CharitaBulls is primarily supported through funds raised at the following annual events:

The Annual Tip-Off Luncheon - a preseason banquet that brings the team and fans together for an inside look at the upcoming season. Nearly 1,000 fans attend this event that is held each year during the first week of November.

FestaBulls - held at the Bulls' practice facility in Deerfield, this dinner features live and silent auctions of over 120 sports' memorabilia items. Attended by Bulls' players, coaches, announcers and staff, and more than 500 fans, this event raises nearly $100,000 each year.

Shoot-the-Ball 3 on 3 Classic - our citywide tournament draws thousands of basketball players and spectators each year. Held every summer in Chicago's Grant Park, the Shoot-the-Ball 3 on 3 Classic donates its proceeds to CharitaBulls and Illinois Special Olympics. The event features men's and women's competition, dunk and shooting contests, celebrity competitions and kid's clinics with Bulls' players.

Funds also are raised through:

- Personal scoreboard messages (birthdays/anniversaries) at Bulls' home games are available for a $100 donation
- Private donations
- A funds matching program
- The annual Women's Clinic
- The CharitaBulls Corporate Sponsor Program whereby sponsors contribute money based on the number of Bulls' victories, dunks, blocked shots, steals and assists made by the team.
- Proceeds from tours of the United Center
- Proceeds from interactive fan games at Bull Session

In addition to programs that raise funds, CharitaBulls has a Return Ticket Program whereby season ticket holders can return tickets to the Community Services Department that they do not plan to use. In turn, these tickets are donated to non-profit agencies. Groups such as the Off the Street Club, Reaching the Mark Family Services, Clearbrook Center and Better Existence with HIV were recent recipients of returned tickets.

HOLIDAY EVENTS

FOOD DRIVE

"Help the Bulls help the homeless" echoes through the concourses of the United Center each December as the Bulls, in conjunction with the Mayor's Office of Special Events and the Chicago Anti-Hunger Federation, host the annual food drive. Nearly two tons of food are collected each holiday season and distributed to Chicago area food kitchens and shelters.

HOLIDAY KIDS PARTY

Bulls' players turn into elves each December as they invite 200 underprivileged kids to visit the team at the Berto Center, the Bulls' practice facility, for a special holiday celebration. Lunch and souvenirs are provided as well as the opportunity to spend time with Bulls' players. Groups in the past that have attended the party include children from the Cabrini Green Tutoring Program, Marillac House, Spectrum Youth Services, Henry Horner Boys & Girls Club, Mercy Home and more.

ORNAMENT SALE

The Team Mates, the Bulls' wives' organization, sell a custom-made holiday ornament each December at several home games and the proceeds go to charities that benefit women and children. Past recipients include The Children's Place, West Side Future, Chicago Abused Women Coalition, Deborah's Place and the Women's Treatment Center.

CORPORATE TICKET SECTION PROGRAM

Providing underprivileged children and adults with the opportunity to see a Bulls' game is a goal of both the Bulls' organization and our sponsors. Approximately 200 people per night are invited to attend a Bulls' home game, compliments of one of eight corporations that sponsor a ticket section in the United Center as part of the Bulls Charity/Corporate Ticket Section Program.

These seats are reserved every game for local kid's groups and various non-profit agencies; groups that otherwise would not be able to attend a game. Recent guests through this program include Chicago Commons, Neighborhood Boys Club, Children's Home & Aid Society, Lawrence Hall Youth Services, After School Action Programs, Sullivan House, Victory Club, Garfield Head Start, numerous schools and more.

BULLS/GATORADE SUMMER BASKETBALL CLINICS

Each summer, the Bulls and Gatorade reach out to the city's youth and team up to present a series of ten free clinics for youngsters throughout the Chicagoland area. Two Bulls' players and/or coaches conduct each session and teach the fundamentals of the game. In conjunction with the NBA's Don't Foul Out and Stay in School programs, an integral part of each clinic features a message from the players urging the importance of a positive lifestyle. Players emphasize the necessity of an education and courage students to remain in school and away from drugs. This program annually reaches thousands of kids throughout the Chicagoland area.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

AUCTION/RAFFLE DONATIONS

Throughout the year, contributions of Bulls' memorabilia are given to charity organizations, community fundraisers, school functions and more. Items donated are typically used as auction items, raffle/door prizes, and school incentive prizes. Hundreds of thousands of dollars are raised for local charities as a result of these donations.

UNITED CENTER COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT FUND

Being a good neighbor is important to the Bulls and we support many community programs in the Near West Side community surrounding the United Center. One of the most ambitious programs is the United Center Community Economic Development Fund which was created in early 1995 to stimulate new businesses and create jobs on the West Side. The United Center Joint Venture has set aside a $1 million fund for loans and grants to finance projects that will have a direct impact on the quality of life in the immediate neighborhood.

WHEELCHAIR BULLS

The Chicago Bulls aren't the only game in town - the Bulls help sponsor one of the nation's best wheelchair teams, the Chicago Wheelchair Bulls. The Wheelchair Bulls devote their time to helping others realize that wheelchair-restricted people can lead active, productive lives. They participate in numerous charity games, perform at Bulls' games and compete against other wheelchair teams on a national and international level. During 1994, the Wheelchair Bulls formed a junior team as well.

PUBLIC SERVICE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The visibility afforded to professional athletes gives our players an extraordinary opportunity to reach out and make an impact on the community. Public Service Announcements (PSA's) are one way of accomplishing this. Throughout each season, Bulls' players and coaches help non-profit organizations promote their services by putting together public service announcements for both radio and television. Past PSA's have benefitted the National Society for the Prevention of Child Abuse, Special Olympics, Children's Memorial Hospital and more.

TEAM MATES/CHICAGO BULLS' WIVES' ORGANIZATION

The Bulls' wives' organization, the Team Mates, comprises wives of front office employees, announcers, players, coaches and basketball personnel. The organization has a philanthropic purpose and holds several fundraising events each year including holiday ornament and cookbook sales. In addition to local efforts, the Team Mates also support the NBA's national initiative, NBA Wives Save Lives, to encourage mammography and breast cancer awareness. As part of the NBA Wives Save Lives program, the Team Mates work with Rush-Presbyterian-St. Lukes Medical Center each year and help sponsor their annual jazzercise event to support breast cancer research. During the '94-95 season, the Team Mates raised and donated $20,000 to local charities.

BOB LOVE

Former Bulls' player, Bob Love, is the Bulls' Director of Community Relations and is a popular motivational speaker who eloquently describes his personal success in overcoming a speech handicap. Love is made available by the Bulls (free of charge) to deliver his inspirational message at schools and social service agencies throughout the year. Love makes over 500 appearances a year at schools, charity events, clinics, non-profit groups and youth programs.

WISH GRANTING FOUNDATIONS

There are few things that are as exciting or rewarding as seeing a child meet one of his heroes. The Chicago Bulls work closely with the Make-a-Wish and Starlight Foundations, both national charity organizations that grant the wishes of chronically and terminally ill children. Each year many of these children are brought to both home and away games to have their wishes granted and meet Bulls' players.

FAN SERVICES

BENNY THE BULL/LUVABULLS/INCREDIBULLS/PLAYER APPEARANCES

Benny the Bull, the IncrediBulls and the LuvaBulls are available for personal appearances. They frequently attend community parades, walk-a-thons, school assemblies, hospital visits, private parties, company events, golf outings, fundraising benefits and more.

When schedules permit, Bulls' players, coaches and management staff make public appearances for charity benefits, hospital, autograph sessions, speaking engagements and other various events. Front office representatives are also available to speak at career sessions and school programs.

MEDIA INFORMATION

As the Chicago Bulls enter their 30th season in the league and first year in the United Center, the team appreciates the coverage and support from the Chicagoland media. We look forward to assisting the media again this season. In an effort to provide a professional work environment, the Bulls have established the following guidelines for the season:

CREDENTIALS: We will honor all reasonable requests for credentials from recognized newspapers, magazines, radio and television outlets. The only season passes that will be honored at the United Center are Bulls season credentials and NBA season credentials. Each of those credentials will admit the bearer to the United Center, the upstairs press box, press row, press work room and both locker rooms. However, MEDIA MEMBERS HOLDING SEASON PASSES SHOULD NOTIFY THE BULLS OFFICE IF PLANNING TO COVER A GAME IN ORDER TO RESERVE SEATING. Please make seating requests at least 48 hours prior to the game.

Individual single game press and photo credentials can be secured for accredited media members by calling the Bulls Media Services office no later than 5:00 pm the day BEFORE a game (5:00 pm Friday for a weekend game). Single passes can be picked up at Gate 3½*on the northeast corner of the United Center.*

Credentials must be visibly worn in the United Center to facilitate proper access to designated areas. In all cases, season and single game passes are non-transferable and any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to ejection from the United Center and the forfeiture of the credential.

PRESS WORK ROOM: The press work room is located on the service level in the northwest corner of the United Center. A meal will be served in this area prior to every Bulls game. Working media with valid credentials will be allowed into the press work room. The work area is equipped with electrical outlets.

SERVICES: A pre-game meal will be served in the press work room. Prior to the game, the media will also be provided with game notes and programs. All statistical services including play-by-play, quarter statistics, halftime and final box scores, and postgame quotes will be distributed at press row and in the upstairs press box. Fax service is provided before, during or after the game by Tom Wiscarz.

LOCKER ROOM: In accordance with NBA policy, the Bulls and visitor's locker rooms will be open to the media up to 45 minutes before the game and 10 minutes after the end of the game. Only working media with a valid credential will be admitted to the locker rooms. The Bulls locker room is located on the north end of the service level, while the visitor's locker room is located adjacent to the press work room.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Season passes will be issued to accredited photographers from large circulation Chicagoland daily newspapers. Photographers from other newspapers or magazines wishing to work specific games must request single-game passes. Freelance photographers needing credentials must submit a letter with a specific assignment from a publication.

POST-GAME GUESTS: Please be sure to list THREE choices for radio and television post-game interviews. This will assure a guest in case the first choice is unavailable.

AUTOGRAPHS: No autographs of players or coaches are allowed.
